

Dr. Thorsten Braun, Anita Gashi, B.A.
SEMINAR ON KEY COMPETENCIES (FÜSQ):

Namibia and Germany two perspectives on strengths and struggles for sustainable development

Join this seminar on key competencies for sustainable development during summer semester 2024! It is open for students from all disciplines who are curious to explore the relationship between the Global North and South. Take the opportunity to engage with students and partners from abroad!

A self-directed and student-centered learning environment is provided. Students are encouraged to choose their own topic. Direct interaction with Namibian partners is supported and encouraged.

You are very welcome to contact us with any questions or sign up directly at C@MPUS: course n° 903000004

Email: sq@zlw.uni-stuttgart.de

Possible Topics :

- education •
- social inequality •
- resource exploitation •
- Namibian-German relations •
- climate justice •
- climate change •
- urbanization •
- land use •
- land rights •

4 QUALITY EDUCATION

Expand your sustainability skills!

GOALS and EXPECTED IMPACT

Improve the understanding among nations and cultures. Raise awareness for the complexity and dimensions of sustainability. Create an outcome that lasts and informs others!